La rémunération fixe comprend le salaire de base et d'autres éléments de rémunération. La rémunération variable peut comprendre des éléments de rémunération variable à court et à long terme. La rémunération prend en compte la position et le niveau de responsabilité du bénéficiaire.

Les éléments de rémunération variables à court terme sont régis par des mesures de performance qui prennent en compte la performance de la Société ou de tout ou partie du groupe, des buts en relation avec le marché, d'autres sociétés ou d'autres repères comparables et/ou des buts personnels, leur accomplissement est généralement mesuré sur une période d'une année.

Les éléments de rémunération variables à long terme sont régis par des mesures de performance qui prennent en compte des objectifs stratégiques et/ou financiers, leur accomplissement est généralement mesuré sur une période pluriannuelle, ainsi que des éléments de maintien en poste.

Selon la performance atteinte, la rémunération peut se monter à un multiplicateur prédéterminée du niveau cible.

Le conseil d'administration ou le comité de rémunération, si cette compétence lui a été déléguée, détermine les mesures de performance et les niveaux cibles des éléments de rémunération variables à court et long terme ainsi que leur accomplissement.

La rémunération peut être versée en espèces, sous forme d'actions, d'instruments ou d'unités sur base d'actions et/ou d'autres types de prestations. Le conseil d'administration ou le comité de rémunération, si cette compétence lui a été déléguée, détermine les conditions d'octroi, d'acquisition (vesting), d'exercice et de révocation. Il peut en particulier prévoir la continuation, l'accélération ou la suppression des conditions d'acquisition (vesting) et d'exercice, le versement d'une rémunération présumant l'atteinte des objectifs ou encore la déchéance des droits dans chaque cas lors d'événements prédéterminés tels que notamment un changement de contrôle ou la fin d'un contrat de travail ou de mandat. La Société peut se procurer les actions requises par le biais d'achats sur le marché ou en utilisant son capital-actions conditionnel.

La rémunération peut être versée par la Société ou toute autre société qu'elle contrôle.

No member of Executive Management may hold more than five mandates of which no more than two may be in companies listed on a stock exchange.

Les mandats suivants ne sont pas soumis aux limites mentionnées ci-dessus :

- 1) les mandats dans des sociétés contrôlées par la Société ou ayant le contrôle sur la Société ;
- 2) les mandats assumés sur requête de la Société ou de toute autre société qu'elle contrôle. Aucun membre du conseil d'administration ou de la direction exécutive ne peut exercer plus de dix mandats de ce genre ; et
- 3) les mandats dans des associations, organisation caritatives, fondations, trusts, fondations de prévoyance professionnelle, institutions éducatives, institutions sans buts lucratifs et d'autres organisations similaires. Le terme mandat désigne tout mandat au sein d'organes supérieurs de direction ou d'administration d'entités juridiques qui ont l'obligation de s'inscrire au registre du commerce ou dans un registre similaire à l'étranger. Sont considérés comme étant un seul mandat, les mandats dans différentes entités légales sous contrôle commun (de droit ou de fait).

Further the reference to Article 25 in Article 3a has been changed to Article 34.

Explanation

The OaEC requires the Annual General Meeting to elect the members of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the members of the Compensation Committee and the Independent Voting Rights Representative. The election of the members of the Board of Directors and the Compensation Committee shall be held individually. The term of office is one year and extends until completion of the next Annual General Meeting, subject to resignation and removal. If the office of the Chairman is vacant, the Board of Directors shall appoint a substitute for a term of office extending until completion of the next Annual General Meeting. Similar provisions are proposed for vacancies on the Compensation Committee and if the Company should not have an Independent Voting Rights Representative. The proposed Art. 8 cipher 2 as well as Art. 16 and 17 implement these requirements.

Representation of Shareholders at the General Meeting by depository institutions such as banks and by the company proxy are no longer permitted under the OaEC. Shareholders may be represented by any person who is authorized (by written proxy) or by the Independent Voting Rights Representative (by written proxy). The proposed Art. 13 implements these requirements.

Pursuant to the OaEC, the Articles of Association have to establish the main principles of the powers and duties of the Compensation Committee. The Board of Directors proposes in Art. 22 that the Compensation Committee shall continue to support the Board of Directors in establishing and reviewing the compensation strategy and in preparing the proposals of the Board of Directors regarding compensation to be submitted to the General Meeting. Further, the Board of Directors may, by means of regulations, delegate to the Compensation Committee the task to determine (i) the compensation of the directors and (ii) the compensation and/or performance metrics and target values of the Executive Management members. The proposed Art. 20 and 21 govern the number of members, the constitution and the organization of the Compensation Committee.

The OaEC further requires that the main principles of performance- and share-based compensation are determined in the Articles of Association. The proposed Art. 36 allows Addex to continue to apply its performance-tied compensation system. At the same time, it allows the Company, within the limitations set forth in the Articles of Association, to adjust its compensation system in view of evolving or new best practices. Directors are paid a fixed compensation and variable compensation elements, which takes into account position and level of responsibility of the recipient. Executives are paid fixed compensation elements (including the base salary) and variable compensation elements. Variable compensation elements may comprise short- and long-term variable compensation elements. Short-term variable compensation elements shall be governed by performance metrics that take into account the performance of the Company, the group or parts thereof, targets in relation to the market, other companies or comparable benchmarks and/or individual targets. Achievement of the performance metrics is generally measured during a one-year period. Long-term variable compensation elements shall be governed by performance metrics that take into account Addex strategic and/or financial objectives as well as retention elements. Their achievement is generally measured during a period of several years. The total compensation of each executive shall take into account position and level of responsibility of the recipient.

The Shareholders are required to approve annually the compensation of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management. According to the proposed Art. 8 para. 5 and Art. 27, the maximum amount of compensation for the Board of Directors shall be approved for their following term of office. This ensures that the compensation period and the term of office correlate. The maximum amount of compensation of the Executive Management shall be approved for the current financial year. To the extent appropriate, the Board of Directors may submit deviating or additional proposals relating to the same or different periods for approval.

In the event the shareholders do not approve a proposed compensation amount, the Board of Directors shall, taking into account all relevant factors, reconsider its proposal, and submit a new proposal to a General Meeting. Instead of one new proposal, the Board of Directors may also submit several proposals relating to different compensation elements.

The OaEC provides that the Articles of Association may determine a “reserve” amount for the compensation of those executives who join the Executive Management, or are being promoted within the Executive Management, after the General Meeting has approved the maximum compensation. Out of this “reserve” amount, Addex may pay out the compensation of such Executive Management members throughout the compensation periods already approved by the shareholders. The Board of Directors proposes in Art. 28 that the “reserve” amount per compensation period shall be limited to a total maximum aggregate amount of up to 100% of the Executive Management compensation last approved by the General Meeting per compensation period.

As of the financial year 2014, the compensation actually paid within the maximum amounts approved by the General Meeting will have to be disclosed in a compensation report governed by the OaEC instead of in the notes to the annual accounts. The compensation report has to be prepared by the Board of Directors, be audited and made available to shareholders for inspection. The proposed amendments to Art. 10 para. 3 and Art. 19 para. 2 cipher 6 implement this requirement.

Agreements relating to the compensation of members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management may be entered for a fixed term not exceeding one year or for an indefinite term with a termination notice period of no more than one year. The Articles of Association must determine the maximum term and the maximum termination notice period. The proposed Art. 29 implements this requirement. It requires that the duration and termination of agreements with members of the Board of Directors shall comply with the term of office and the law. With regard to members of the Executive Management, the proposed provision ensures that Addex may continue to protect itself from abrupt terminations by means of adequate termination notice periods. The provision further allows Addex to enter into non-compete agreements against appropriate consideration if such agreements are in the interest of the Company; their duration shall not exceed one year, and maximum consideration shall not exceed the last annual compensation.

The OaEC requires that the Articles of Association determine the amount of credits to be granted to members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management. In accordance with best corporate governance practices and Addex current policy, the Board of Directors proposes in Art. 30 that no credits may be granted to members of the Board of Directors or the Executive Management.

The OaEC further requires that the Articles of Association determine the maximum number of mandates a member of the Board of Directors or the Executive Management may hold in the supreme governing bodies of legal entities which are required to be registered in the Swiss Commercial Register or a comparable foreign register. Mandates in companies controlled by Addex are exempt by law from these limitations. The Board of Directors proposes in Art. 31 that directors may hold no more than fourteen additional external mandates of which no more than four may be in listed companies. The mandates of members of the Executive Management are limited to five mandates of which only two mandates may be in listed companies. These limitations are to ensure that the members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management have sufficient time to dedicate to their office with Addex. Further, members of the Board of Directors and the Executive Management may hold a limited number of mandates in companies at the request of Addex (e.g., in non-controlled joint ventures) or in charitable organizations, foundations, associations, educational institutions, non-profit institutions etc. Irrespective of these limitations, each director and Executive Management member is obliged by law and his or her employment or mandate agreement to perform his or her duties to Addex with due care. This includes, among other things, the obligation to have sufficient time and resources available to dedicate to Addex.

Further, it is no longer required that the Board of Directors examine the professional qualifications of the qualified auditors (former Art. 19 para. 2 cipher 10).
